PROGRAM OBJECTIVE
The goal of Neuroimaging Clinics of North America is to keep practicing radiologists and radiology residents up to date with current clinical practice in radiology by providing timely articles reviewing the state of the art in patient care.

TARGET AUDIENCE
Practicing radiologists, radiology residents, and other healthcare professionals who utilize neuroimaging findings to provide patient care.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this activity, participants will be able to:
1. Review the anatomy of the head, neck, and spine to detect and identify variants utilizing neuroimaging to assist appropriate treatment decision-making.
2. Discuss the role of conventional and novel neuroimaging techniques in clinical decision making in diagnosing, evaluating, and treating findings during head, neck, and spine imaging.
3. Recognize neuroimaging as a crucial and useful noninvasive method for determining normal and abnormal head, neck, and spine anatomy.

ACCREDITATION
